UNIT PERFORMANCE PROJECTS

Introduction

eChinese LLC has always been committed to promoting "Joyful Chinese Learning." Through a variety of classroom activities, we aim to help students learn and apply Chinese more effectively.

The eChinese Student Coursework Showcase is designed to showcase the creativity and language skills that students have demonstrated during their Chinese language learning journey! Through this event, we hope to improve student's confidence and interest, encourage them to learn from each other, and promote communication among teachers and students.

We sincerely invite teachers to recommend your students to participate in this event, inspiring your students to continue to strive and progress.

It is a valuable opportunity to display the fruits of students' efforts! Winners of the first, second, and third prizes will be awarded. Outstanding works will be selected and showcased on the eChinese website.
